Counting our Blessings

It's that time of year when we take a moment to stop and consider what we are truly thankful for. We all have so many material blessings, but let's think about something that money can't buy... family. Sure, our family can drive us crazy, but they are also crazy about us! Take time this Thanksgiving to remember the things your family has given to you. Think of the laughter that will be enjoyed when you all get together. Of course, it could be at the expense of others! Let's face it, we all have a crazy aunt that we get tickled at! What about love and support? When you feel like the whole world is against you and you want to give up, remember that your closest family members will love you unconditionally and support you. Consider the memories you have with your family. Remember, they are the ones who have known you since you were born, probably even changed your diaper! No one else will understand your inside jokes, being "mistreated" by your parents or your vacations like your family. Lastly, count your blessings if you have family to be thankful for! My hope for you is that you're able to gather together with your parents, children, grandchildren, grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins, etc. Don't ever take your family for granted. Not everyone is fortunate enough to have family. From our TSS family to all of our customers, who are extended TSS family, we hope you have a very Happy Thanksgiving!

Larry's Corner

The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, the providence of Almighty God. And I recommend to them that while offering up the ascriptions justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, and to "commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, mourners or sufferers," and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the Divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and Union.

Abraham Lincoln said it best.
Happy Thanksgiving!
Blessings everyone. -Larry

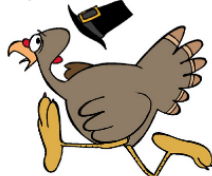

She's a Winner!

Our very own Marlie just ran a half marathon at Disney World recently and did amazing! She finished 961 out of 8126 women with a time of 2:24:26! Over 12k ran overall. Way to go Marlie!

Weird Animal Facts about Turkeys

- A turkey's gender can be determined from its droppings-a male's will be shaped like the letter "J", a female's more spiral shaped.
- Wild turkeys can fly at up to 60 mph!
