September means Fall, Football and Fairs!

It's official! The first day of fall is September 22nd and we are all so excited! That means it's time for cooler temperatures, apple picking, colorful leaves, football and state fairs. I'm sure many of you have already been cheering for your favorite football teams and hopefully they've been winning! We've enjoyed some cooler mornings recently which gets us excited about the days ahead. The West Tennessee State Fair is this week and I've already been to get my favorite 4-H Chicken Shack chicken! Michelle and I look forward to it ALL yearlong! I'm not going to lie...I was sadly disappointed that no one was manning the fiddlestick booth, so I had to settle for a funnel cake, a caramel apple and two jumbo bags of cotton candy! I've never been able to ride anything because let's face it, all of those rides are designed to MAKE you throw up! My sole purpose for going to the fair is to eat all of the things that I don't get to eat for the other 11 months of the year AND to go to the petting zoo! Junk food and animals...what more could you ask for? Hope you all are able to get out and start enjoying this next season that's quickly approaching! Full disclosure: I was going to surprise my Mom with the 2nd jumbo bag of cotton candy, but I ate it. :( She wasn't expecting it, so what she doesn't know won't hurt her. Right?! HAPPY FALL YALL!! -Becky

Microwave Apple Crisp

- 4 lg Granny Smith apples-peeled, cored & sliced
  - 1/2 cup butter, melted
  - 3/4 cup packed brown sugar
  - 3/4 cup quick cooking oats
  - 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
  - 1 tsp cinnamon
  - 1/2 tsp allspice
1. Spread the apples evenly in 8" square baking dish. In a medium bowl, mix together the melted butter, brown sugar, oats, flour, cinnamon & allspice. Sprinkle this topping over the apples.
  2. Cook on full power in the microwave for 10-12 minutes, until apples can be easily pierced w/a knife. ENJOY!

Fun in Paradise!

Our friend and customer, Linda Finley, recently visited Puerto Vallarta and had these beautiful pictures to share. She said after seeing a pirate ship for two days in the distance, she decided to ask others in the group if they could see it too. Turns out, it was a dinner cruise and not one too many pina colodas!
